What will we be learning?

- Consider why monarchs built castles and explore where they lived through time.
- Learn who Queen Victoria was and where she lived.
- Explore homes built in the Victorian era and identify their features.
- Investigate and identify a variety of homes today.
- Learn to find answers from sources.
- Make distinctions between aspects of our own lives and those of past times.
- Identify similarities and differences across periods.

Key vocabulary

- Historical vocabulary: past, present, today, tomorrow, future, years ago, timeline, order, before, after
- Chronology: the order in which things happen
- Source: Something that gives us information about the past.
- Evidence: The information historians take from sources.
- Similar: Something that is like something else – alike but not identical.
- Different: Something that is not like something else.
- Change: To make different.
- Beyond living memory: Over 100 years ago.
- Monarch: A ruler such as a king or queen.
- Home: The place where a person or animal lives.

Castles and Palaces
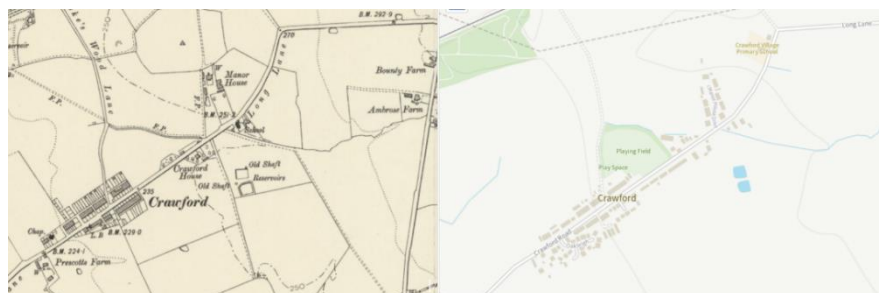

Kings and queens live in castles and palaces.
They were:
- built for important people, their families and servants
- built to protect important people from attack
- often built high up on a hill so that any attackers could be seen
- often very big to show how much money the important person had
- designed to launch weapons to attack the enemy

Crawford Manor, built 1718

Types of Homes
Detached	Semi-detached
Terraced	Bungalow
Flat/apartment	Mobile home/caravan
Houseboat	Other

Queen Victoria
1837

Which of these time periods comes first chronologically?
Victorian
Stone Age
Roman

Which of these homes would a queen traditionally live in?
Bungalow
Terraced
Palace

Which of these might you find in a Victorian home?
A televison
An internet router
A range

Which of these is only in a modern day bedroom?
Duvet
Blanket
Bed	